

Attention FDA

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam? Yes

NO

All their test are for, is too force you to buy these high priced hearing aids that don't even come close to real hearing aids. I have tried

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or ~~several~~ have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

Absolutely not, it is my money I spend and I am more satisfied with Cpl than with any of these hearing aid store specialist selling hearing aids. Cpl is tops with me

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose? Yes
